PHOTO RELEASE

The Purchaser agrees to the use of any photography taken on the wedding day by C+F for C+F marketing. Photos may be posted on C+F websites, social media, blog or any other form of promoting hair and makeup services.

SERVICES

- a. It is agreed that C+F shall provide hair styling services and makeup services on the event date as the details dictate on the Service Form.

- b. Services include trial of bridal hairstyle and/or bridal makeup, traditional (hand applied) makeup, airbrush makeup, hair styling, false eyelash application, and clip-in hair extension (provided by Purchaser) application.
- c. Purchaser agrees that C+F is only obligated to provide the services that are specified in this contract. Any additional services added on the event day will only be accommodated if time allows. C+F cannot be held liable for any problems this presents, abiding to the original timeline set in place.
- d. Trial services prior to the event date: a Purchaser-paid trial shall be offered by C+F to the Purchaser on an agreed upon time and date. This trial shall provide a means for Purchaser and C+F to determine together a set look to be performed on the event date. During said trial, Purchaser will have the opportunity to go over any specific needs, requests, or concerns they would like addressed as part of the services C+F will perform on the event date.
- e. Purchaser must notify C+F if they decide to change the agreed upon look.
- f. If Purchaser does not wish to schedule and pay for trial, Purchaser understands C+F cannot guarantee that any look the Purchaser requests will be realistic or achievable and executed in the timeline agreed upon on the event date.
- g. If Purchaser does not wish to schedule and pay for trial, Purchaser understands and agrees that C+F cannot be held liable for any unanticipated time constraints this places on performing the services, or if any other Attendants specified in this contract are not given the same length of time as a result of Purchaser's application/styling taking longer than anticipated and planned for.
- h. Purchaser also understands and agrees that under these circumstances, they are still liable for the full agreed-upon fees. The fees will still be owed, even if, as a result of this circumstance, the Attendants of Purchaser's bridal party, who are specified within this Contract, were not able to be accommodated by C+F because of the Purchaser's extended appointment did not allow substantial time for the other agreed upon Attendants.
- i. Purchaser understands and agrees that only those attendants who are included in this contract are guaranteed services, and only if time allows, will additional attendants be added for additional fees. C+F is not responsible for providing Services to additional Attendants if they are not included in this contract. C+F shall only provide services to additional attendants not included in this contract if reasonable time permits. Additional services on event date are to be paid in full via cash, check, or Venmo.
- j. If the Purchaser and/or Attendants (that are receiving services) are more than 30 minutes late, those individuals will be charged an additional $30 late fee for each half hour. Tardiness results in scheduling and service conflicts for C+F and other clients following your appointment(s). If the scope of the original contract cannot be fulfilled due to client's tardiness, services may be reduced; however, Purchaser is liable for original amount.
- k. If a Purchaser or Attendants are more than 60 minutes late, the assumption will be that the client is a "no show". This will result in the Purchaser forfeiting all deposits and the credit card on file will be charged 100% of the total fees of the services.

SERVICE FORM

The Service Form will be completed by the Purchaser and C+F to determine and agree upon all details of services, event date details, and associated fees. Once completed and agreed upon, any requested changes to the Service Form must be approved by C+F.

C+F will do their best to accommodate any requests for additions or upgrades to the Service Form, however there is no guarantee.
